Beyond the River!

We see our loved ones o'er its tide Sail from our sight away, away! Where are they sped, they who return No more to glad our longing eyes? They've passed from Life's contracted bourne To land unseen, unknown, that lies Beyond the river!

Tis hid from view; but we may guess How beautiful that realm must be For gleamings of its loveliness, In visions granted, oft we see. The very clouds that o'er it throw Their veil, unraised for mortal sight With gold and purple tintings glow, Reflected from the glorious light. Beyond the river !

And gentle airs, so sweet, so calm, Steal sometimes from that viewless sphere The mourner fells their breath of balm. And soothed sorrow dries the tear. And sometimes list'ning ear may gain Entraneing sound that hither floats The echo of a distant strain
Of harps' and voices' blended notes. Beyond the river !

There are our loved ones in their rest; They've crossed Time's river-now no more They heed the bubbles on its breast, Nor feel the storms that sweep its shore But there pure love can live, can last; They look for us their home to share When we, in turn, away have passed, What joyful greetings await us there,
